Honouring and Celebrating Life

At Resthaven Funerals we understand that planning a funeral for a loved one is a difficult process, and when you are dealing with grief and loss it can be hard to make decisions. That is where our close-knit, highly professional qualified team can provide all the help you need. We see it as 'our family, caring for your family', providing continuity of care and dedicated personal service that will ease the stress. Preplanning and prepayment options are encouraged.

Our team work within all your requirements, providing you and your family with a dignified and memorable funeral for your loved one.

We can assist with memorialisation options as well. Resthaven have two well appointed premises with viewing facilities.

We care for all of East and South Auckland communities and the wider Auckland areas.

You are welcome to visit one of our locations
