Our Impact

Getting older is something we should all celebrate, but it can be tough. With an increasing number of major life changes – retirement, health challenges and loss of loved ones – it is crucial we have the support we need within our reach.

Our work helps bring older people from a position of vulnerability to one of resilience, age well and to ensure that their voices are heard and represented when decisions are made about them.

Each year Age Concern help tens of thousands of older people and their whanau across Auckland.

"I want to thank Age Concern for being there for our Mum. We all live outside of Auckland, so it's lovely to know you are there to support her. She has a wonderful volunteer visitor who comes each week & has attended your workshops.

You're all amazing!"
